

THE ROOM UPSTAIRS

Everyone is afraid of something

Saturday 26th October 2024

6pm & 8pm

St James' Church, Packington Estate

By Bafta nominated television writer, Tom Needham

A young woman answers an advertisement for a trusted house-sitter. She arrives at a beautiful house in the middle of nowhere. The owner shows her around. It's the perfect job but there is one simple proviso... please don't go into the room upstairs.

A mysterious cloaked figure narrates and commentates as the two young people attempt to unravel the long-held mystery of a haunted house.

This entertaining new black comedy, by BAFTA-nominated television writer Tom Needham, will have you jumping, laughing and squirming in your seat, and perhaps confront your greatest fears.
